DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Rigoberto Enrique Isaza,

Plaintiff

V.

Earl Marshal Trotter, et al.,

Defendants

2:15-cv-00632-JAD-GWF

Order Adopting Report and Recommendation and Dismissing Complaint with Prejudice

[ECF Nos. 24, 28]

10 Pro se Nevada state prisoner Rigoberto Enrique Isaza sues his step father Earl Marshal 11 Trotter and Farmers Insurance for civil-rights violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Isaza alleges that 12 Trotter defrauded him out of his share of the rental income from the family house and that Farmers
13 Insurance and Trotter breached Isaza's mother's will. Magistrate Judge Foley screened Isaza's 14 amended complaint and recommends that I dismiss it with prejudice because Isaza has not pleaded 15 any facts to show that Trotter or Farmers were acting under color of state law or that these 16 defendants deprived him of a right secured by the Constitution or the laws of the United States.¹

17 Isaza’s timely objections² do not cure the deficiencies identified by the magistrate judge.
18 Isaza conclusorily argues that the breach of his mother’s will is a constitutional injury, that he has a 19 constitutional right to inheritance from his mother, that defendants have violated federal probate
20 laws, and that Farmers Insurance “acts under state laws.”³ Isaza still offers no facts to show that his 21 federally established rights were violated or that the defendants acted under color of state law. I 22 therefore adopt Magistrate Judge Foley’s report and recommendation and dismiss Isaza’s claims for 23 failure to state a claim. And because Isaza has previously been granted leave to amend and I find 24 that amendment would be futile, this dismissal is with prejudice, and I direct the Clerk of Court to
